ent Cycle Club.

Although this club is the youngest orministration of the kind in Riehmond, it has a very enviable record for success-

HISTORY OF THE CLUB.
The isospendent Cycle Club was or ganized on March 28th, 1836, at the reasocates of Mr. F. H. Powell, No. 14 cas Marshall street. At the time of its organization there were only at member.

Ind. P. H. Powell, Secretary and Treasurer, and J. H. Binfort, Peasy lugier.
The young gentlemen engaged quarters at the north Third street, but the membership increased with such phenomenal repidity that in an exceedingly short time it was apparent that more commodious increments would have to be procured, and the present handsome club house at life west Broad was selected. It is satmated directly opposite the Richmond college and a more desirable site for a cinb bouse could not possibly have been secured. It bring situated on the western outskirts of the city, on an elevated position, and having a large and beautiful lawn attached. The members have converted the lawn into a first-class tennis court. The ciub house has within the past month undersone a thorough remodeling and is at present an ideal club house, every neillity in the way of games, library, etc.
being provided for the entertainment of the numbers. The membership continues to sheadily increase and at every meeting of the club a number of applications for membership are acted upon. The club loss not confine itself strictly to cyclins, but the social feature of the club is one in also a glee and mandolin club connected with it.

carolina Chemical Company, the negroes charged with the crime are now behind the bars of Henrico county jail.

THE HOLD-UP.

Frank Profilet and Frank Hansford, two white boys, were met at the place named by two negroes, who demanded money. One of the boys says a pistol was drawn on them.

The cash the two boys had with them, fortunately, only amounted to ten cents. The negroes were disgusted by their small reward and gave one of the boys a severe kicking, so he says.

Mr. Tinsley was riding home through Highland Park and met Profiet and Hansford in company with a third young man, who had joined them.

They told their story to Mr. Tinsley and pointed out two men about a quarter of a mile distant as the highwaymen. The third young man had a musket which Mr. Tinsley borrowed and at once started in pursuit.

THE CAPTURE.

negroes in the causity fall.

The negroes gave their names as Isaac Farley and Henry Fox. They are about twenty-three years of age.

No arms were discovered on their persons, when arrested.

Mr. Tinsley was very reticent as to his part in the capture and modestly disclaimed any special bravery on his part. Had it not been for his prompt action, however, the negroes would probably never have been captured, or at least not without a great deal of trouble and expense.

ORNAMENT'S DOWNFALL

GREAT THREE. YEAR, OLD BEATEN BY FLEISCHMANN

In the Buckeye Stakes Race-A Large Crowd and a Good Crowd at Brighton Beach.

CINCINNATI, July 17 .- Ornament, the greatest three-year-old of the year met his downfall to-day in the Buckeye stakes at Oakley. He was beaten by Fleischmann, who up until this afternoon was never able to break out of the maiden class. Whether Fleischmann is really the better horse of the two is still a matter better horse of the two is still a matter of doubt. The race was run over a track deep in mud and could hardly be termed a contest of speed. Fleischmann simply made a runaway race of it. He got away front at the drop of the flag and ran the entire distance with Relift, his jockey, sitting still in the saddle. Fleischmann won without apparently any effort. At the head of the stretch he was live lengths to the good. Meadow thorp was second, and Ornament last. Half way down the home stetch Clayton tried to send the game son of Order out to the front as he has done many times before, but it was useless. He passed the fast-tiring Meadowthorp, but never got closer than within two lengths of Fleischmann, and the latter crossed the wire an easy winner by two lengths.

The result of the race was a grand victory for Cincinnati. Fleischmann is owned by Mr. Thomas M. Green, of this city, and is named in honor of ex-Senator Charles Fleischmann, the millionaire horseman and capitalist of this city.
